Meeting – Date & Venue	Greytown Town Centre 4 November at 11am. Helen McNaught, Ewan Hyde ,Cr M Palmers, Cr R Carter, Cr J Riddell(Chair), Mbr Leigh Hay. Apology L Gittings.
Key issues from meeting	Carterton is disposing of books through sales. Considering an 'outdoor' Borrowing Library. Lorraine Gittings has abdicated her role on this committee South Wairarapa – Helen attended the Regional Librarian meeting in Wellington. Developing a Wellington Regional Strategy and sharing of resources including Upper Hutt Library offering to lend 2 librarians to Martinborough while they scope out the design layout for the new Library. A Librarian attended the South Island Young Adult Conference. Summer Reading programme to begin. Mbr Leigh Hay enquired at what stage the new Martinborough Town Hall was at.
Speakers	None
Specific item/s for Council consideration	Library Performance Indicators: Discussion paper circulated and Helen to email for comments. Courier system – currently not meeting Library needs for Greytown and Helen to review. Cr Ruth Carter offered to assist Helen review the "Disabilities Access" in new Martinborough Library. Ewan presented paper on business case for the conversion of the 4 WLS libraries to RFID system. Members to read and send questions through to Ewan. JP Service Desk: The Wairarapa JP Assn want to provide a regular JP service at all the libraries. This fits with our vision "That the libraries create a hub for the community" and was well received. Cr Riddell to liaise.
