DEFINITIONS:

Description	Interpretations
Accredited Laboratory	Laboratories which are recognised by the International Accreditation New Zealand (IANZ), which is the operating arm of the New Zealand Accreditation Council.
Charities	Either a voluntarily registered or unregistered charity but has a ' charitable purpose ' can sell food for not more than 20 times a year.
Food Registration Certificate	Sometimes referred to as a Food Licence, is a certificate indicating that the food business or organisation is registered by South Wairarapa District Council, another Local Council, or by the Ministry for Primary Industries.
Food Stall Licence	This is a certificate granted by South Wairarapa District Council allowing an applicant to sell food at a public event and is subject to condition(s).
Fundraisers	Fundraisers such as sausage sizzles, bake sales, etc. that make food for a ' charitable purpose ' and specific cause and only charge service to recover the cost of ingredients can sell food for not more than 20 times a year.
Horticultural producer (unregistered)	If the unregistered horticultural producer only sells minimally processed and handled fruit or vegetables (e.g. rinsing, washing), that is personally grown, to the consumers. This does not include wholesalers.
One-off events	If the unregistered applicant only sell food for personal profit once a year, this also include if the applicant sells packaged food sourced from registered businesses (e.g. chippies, chocolate bars, and soft drinks) that do not need to be kept in a fridge to be safe to eat.
Registered Food Business	Food businesses that are operating under a National Programme, Custom Food Control Plan, or a Template Food Control Plan, and is audited/verified by a Local Council or MPI.
Unregistered Food Business	Food businesses that may be operating under the exemption schedule of the Food Act 2014. Unregistered applicant(s) may unlikely to be granted a Food Stall Licence if the applicant(s) fails to meet the requirements for an exemption and / or Laboratory Reports indicating that the goods they are selling is safe and suitable. Any unregistered business that is granted a Food Stall Licence must ensure that they are selling food that is safe and suitable.

STALLHOLDER'S DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

It is understood that the approved stallholder has the responsibility to ensure that food safety requirements are met. That the approved stallholder, will contact and coordinate with the event organiser to ensure the availability of sufficient equipment and facilities to meet food safety requirements. That the approved stallholder understand that he or she or they may be ordered to leave the event on the day if they fail to meet the requirements, and / or causing detriment to public health, and / or breaching the condition(s) of their food stall licence.

EVENT ORGANISER'S DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

It is understood that the event organiser has the responsibility to ensure all food stallholders meet food safety requirements. That the event organiser, will contact each of the stallholders to ensure they understand their responsibilities and ensure the availability of sufficient equipment for their food storage and heating. That the event organiser understand, at times, that he or she or they may have to turn down potential food stallholders or ask approved stallholders to leave the event on the day if they fail to meet the requirements.
