Key issues from meeting	There is a Featherston parent keen to set up Touch Rugby for her son and friends. Police and Youth Aid Officer Mark Brown are supportive. Helen to email Featherston Community Board members asking if they would be prepared to support this initiative and then lead onto a programme lead by Juse One on the history of Street Art with the goal of painting a wall mural. Ian Osland to make up a spreadsheet showing monthly vandalism and tagging, both Council and private that is reported. Garry Thomas reported on the Nelson conference for Community Patrollers. Two Featherston members received Meritorious Awards for providing crucial evidence in relation to the Shane Jones murder. They need a new car and fundraising for same. Ian Osland is on the CPNZ Development Board and he stated there is a move to nationalise the Patrollers and supply cars and have national standards. Featherston needs more Patrollers. Youth – Hope reported that Kuranui Principal wants photos of local tagging and will show to staff in case they can identify some of the culprits. Neighbourhood Support – Sue is in contact with the Martinborough ones who want to be hosts but at this stage slow in getting going. There is an advert in the latest STAR and Helen arranging for a notice to go in the School Newsletter along with advert for a local co-ordinator. Residents of the Matthews Flats and the Cecily Martin Flats to be invited to set up a group. Cemetery – cameras to be installed. Helen has had enquiries from the Martinborough Community Patrol regarding cameras. Helen to invite them onto the WP.
Speakers	Juse One sent his apology.
