

Greytown Trust Lands Trust Electing 3 Trust Members

Evan MORCH

My principal place of residence is in the Greytown Trust Lands Trust area.

Evan Morch has had a 42 year career covering dairy manufacturing in Taranaki and Canterbury including running his own company for 10 years consulting in energy, defence and food quality. He spent 6 years with New Zealand Trade and Enterprise as a Regional Manager assisting innovative companies' export initiatives. Representing New Zealand interests internationally was a feature.

He has degrees, Bachelor of Food Technology and Master of Business Administration, from Massey University and is a past member of the Institute of Directors. Evan was born and educated in Wellington and is a past Chair of Mana College's Board of Trustees.

Evan and Sally arrived in Greytown 1998 and are actively involved with bowls and the community. Sally recently retired as a teacher from Greytown Primary. Their four married offspring live in Brisbane, Sydney, Oman and Manila.

Evan is keen to assist Greytown District Trust Lands Trust promoting community economic developments.
