

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Nga mahi o te tari kāwanatanga | Working in the Public Service

Our local government public service works collectively to make a meaningful difference for New Zealand communities. The purpose of all public service is to support our democracy, enable elected officials to develop and implement their policies, deliver high-quality and efficient public services, support Councillors to pursue the long-term public interest, facilitate active citizenship and act in accordance with the law. We have an important role in supporting the Crown in its relationships with Māori under the Treaty of Waitangi and te Tiriti o Waitangi. Whilst there are many diverse roles, all public servants are unified by a spirit of service to the community and guided by the core principles and values of the public service in our work.

Leadership Capabilities

| Capability area | This means that Managers will |
|--|--|
| Managers will ensure that effective people leadership is your top priority | Ensure that our people know what is expected of them Managers will have a clear set of priorities for your team. Your staff understand these priorities and what they, and the wider organisational strategy, mean for their work. Staff will periodically review whether you've achieved these objectives and share this with your team(s) warts and all. Ensure our people can develop and grow All staff in their team will have clear performance and development objectives. In setting these objectives, HOW our staff do things and HOW they behave is as important as WHAT they deliver. Coaching for Performance conversations are prioritised and held regularly, including providing prompt, clear and actionable feedback Staff will be encouraged and rewarded for appropriate experimentation, and they celebrate both success and appropriate failure. Any poor performance is addressed promptly, clearly, and fairly. You have a clear sense of your current and emerging capability needs and are actively following a plan to address these, including succession planning for key roles. Ensure our people have the tools, information, and space to do their jobs |

| | |
|--|--|
| | There are mechanisms for the timely dissemination of the information that staff need to do their jobs. They will delegate sign-out and decision-making appropriately and explicitly |
| Managers will look after your staff's wellbeing at all times | Make the wellness of your people our primary focus. They will actively manage workloads to maintain the wellness of your people, including discussions up the line to reprioritise when necessary. There is zero tolerance of bullying and other inappropriate behaviour, and any instances are dealt with immediately, fairly and in a way that matches the scale of the behaviour. |
| Managers will develop a strong, high-performing and adaptive culture | Lead the development of a culture where people are supported to do their best work and to grow and develop. People will be able to raise different perspectives and concerns and challenge in an appropriate way. They know they can do so safely and that we as leaders will take their issues seriously, and people can be themselves. Diversity is encouraged and we actively use those diverse perspectives in our work. |
| Managers work as a collective in everything we do. | First and foremost be a member of the collective leadership team of Council, and the leader of your team second. They will ensure that behaviour, decision-making and prioritisation reflects this hierarchy. Managers will actively contribute your own time and your staff resource to collective projects as needed They will actively contribute to collective leadership team discussions in an open and frank way to help shape our collective decisions. Once a collective decision is reached, you actively own, champion and implement that decision, irrespective of your personal views |
| Managers are open and honest with each other in your team and will colleagues | Raise any concerns or questions we have early, openly and constructively , and in the appropriate place and time. We will challenge each other appropriately and we react constructively, encouragingly and curiously to that challenge. We will not raise problems or concerns without solutions or alternative suggestions. Once decisions are taken, we get on and implement in the collective interest and do not relitigate or undermine. We take a “no surprises” approach to raising any issues. |
| Managers engage early, frequently and effectively, and model transparency | Engage early with our partners, customers and stakeholders , internally and externally, and openly and in the spirit of seeking their contribution. We will ensure that the timing of engagement allows people to shape what we do, wherever possible. We will model transparency in our engagements, our default position is we discuss things openly with our customers and stakeholders unless there is a very good reason not to. We will be well planned and organised in our engagements. We will bring the results of this engagement back into Council, it is our responsibility to share it proactively and as widely as is appropriate, and we use it in our decision-making |
| Managers delegate , you take decisions consistent with this delegation, but you keep everyone informed. | We will keep ELT informed of anything involving the Mayor and Councillors, media and significant feedback from stakeholders and customers. It is expected that Managers will delegate decision-making and sign-out to the lowest sensible level given the importance and risk associated with the item. It's ok to get this wrong as long as we learn from it. |
| Managers do the basics well and avoid 'own goals' . | We will follow the rules around one-up approval of invoices and take a careful but common-sense approach to sensitive expenditure. We forecast actively and to the best of our ability, and most importantly adjust these forecasts promptly when things change. We will follow the rules around procurement, including ensuring that any exceptions to the standard processes are clearly approved. It is our responsibility to ensure all procurement has a contract and suitable documentation supporting it. We take a risk-averse approach to identifying conflicts of interest, applying the test of how comfortable you would be with explaining why a decision is on the front page of the newspaper. |
| Managers will apply 'systems leadership' | We will lead across boundaries – departmental, organisational or sector. We will influence others rather than pull a management lever, when facing large, complex, and difficult problems. We can juggle multiple uncertainties; where no |

|--|---|
| | one person can find or organise the solution on their own. We work with others to make resources meet the demand, which is outstripping them, meaning that the only way forward is by involving as many people's energies, ideas, talents, and expertise as possible. |
